Dear friends,

Continuing the wonderful tradition of the Albanian American Community in the Washington Metropolitan Area, Albanian American Academy invites all the members of this community in a festive celebration of the Albanian National Flag day and the Holiday Season

on

December 15, 2007, 12:00 - 17:00

at

"Maggiano's - Chevy Chase"

5333 Wisconsin Avenue, NW

Washington, DC 20015

202.966.3108

The afternoon will include a delicious family-style banquet (menu attached) as well as dancing and entertainment by an experienced DJ playing Albanian and American music. The children currently enrolled in Albanian language classes at the Academy will perform a short artistic program. The ticket price for this event is $40 for adults and $20 for children 6-13 years old.

We kindly request all the participants to RSVP with sitting preferences by December 10 (tables accommodate up to 10 people). Due to the high level of interest for this event, Albanian American Academy can not guarantee tickets for requests submitted after this date.

Please send checks or money orders made payable to "Albanian American Academy" at this address:

Formal attire

All the proceeds will go to Albanian American Academy

Albanian American Academy is a non-for-profit cultural and educational organization. Its primary goal is to disseminate Albanian language, customs and heritage to the present and future generations of Albanian descent and to all other interested parties in the Washington DC metro area. For the current academic year, classes for children 3-13 years old are held at American University.
